

6TH NXG INDIA ANNUAL SUMMIT

LEGACY to Purpose

The 6th NxG Annual Summit brought together 85+ next-generation leaders and family business experts for two vibrant days at The Leela Palace, Bengaluru.

Centered on the theme 'Legacy to Purpose', the event explored how family businesses can evolve while preserving their core values. Discussions covered leadership, technology, governance, and culture, offering fresh perspectives on navigating change across generations. The event fostered meaningful dialogue and practical takeaways, inspiring attendees to carry forward their family legacies with a renewed sense of purpose and vision.

What HAPPENED on Day #1?

The 6th NxG Annual Summit opened with inspiring remarks from Rabindra Srikantan, Chairman, CII Karnataka & Managing Director, ASM Technologies Ltd., Farhad Forbes, Chairman, CII-FBN India Chapter & Co-chairman, Forbes Marshall and Trisha Mandal, Chairperson, CII-FBN India NxG Community & Director, Fox Mandal and Associates, who emphasized the importance of preserving legacy while steering towards purposeful growth.

A thought-provoking conversation between Rishad Premji, Executive Chairman, Wipro Ltd. and Farhad Forbes began with Rishad sharing insights from his journey at Wipro, highlighting lessons on leadership and continuity. He further highlighted how AI and generational change are reshaping family businesses, emphasizing the need for innovation while staying rooted in core values.

Shankar Vanavarayar, President, Kumaraguru College of Technology, moderated a lively panel on leadership evolution with diverse voices. The discussion underscored how evolving leadership demands agility, innovation, and intergenerational collaboration.

The afternoon featured a workshop on succession, using case studies from Muthoot Pappachan Group, India and SOL Group, Italy by Prof. Paolo Morosetti, SDA Bocconi School of Management, followed by an engaging session led by TVS Capital Funds on asset allocation with family office leaders.

THE DAY ENDED ON A LIGHTER NOTE WITH PICKLEBALL AT GO RALLY AND SOCIAL DINNER

What HAPPENED on Day #2?

Day 2 began with a profound Dialogue on Family Governance & Values with Sandeep Maini, Chairman, Maini Group, highlighting how aligning vision across generations fosters continuity and strengthens value-driven family enterprises.

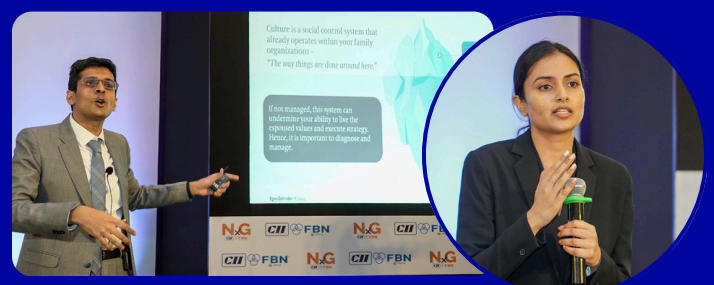

A lighter yet powerful session followed, where Ashutosh Bishnoi, Director, Multi Act, shared insightful lessons on risk-taking, including the importance of gold investments as a hedge in uncertain business environments.

One of the summit's most inspiring moments was The Father-Daughter Dialogue, moderated by Hrishit Shroff, Executive Director, Excel Industries Ltd., where daughters, Saanya Jain joined her father Nitesh Jain (Best Group) and Devanganna Jain joined her father Ritum Jain (Shantinath Detergents), to share stories of shaping leadership and breaking barriers. The dialogue underscored the increasing influence of daughters in driving the future of family enterprises.

The afternoon featured two parallel insightful sessions. One was Philanthropy & Impact — led by Jenaan Lilani, Head-Impact, FBN International and global experts Nimish Shah, Managing Director, LGT Wealth India, Supriya Balakrishnan, Senior Director, LGT Venture and Siddarth Krishna Kumar, Founder, Seisou Labs, focused on embedding purpose into business.

The second session was Building Cross-Generational Culture — a global IP workshop by Egon Zehnder, led by Karthik Ramesh and Archie Awasthi, highlighting the nuances of workplace and family culture. This exclusive program was brought to the Next Gen platform to help participants navigate culture across generations.

The summit concluded with Paolo Morosetti's reflections, inspiring participants to transform insights into purposeful leadership.
